English

Class: V.

Chapter : 2.

My Brother, My Brother.

ORAL.

Q1 Do you think Sher Singh should have gone to find his father and not taken his brother alone?

Ans: No, not at all because it would have wasted precious time.

Q2 From which book has this extract been taken?

Ans: This extract has been taken from the book 'My Brother, My Brother' written by Noark Burke.

Q II. Answer these questions:-

Q 1. How did Sher Singh take his brother to kalaghat?

Ans: Carried him on his back.

Q2. Why did Sher Singh glance around uneasily on his way to the hospital

Ans: He saw bear tracks.

Q3 Why did Sher Singh breathe a prayer of thanks?

Ans: The elephants had run away.

Scanned with CamScanner

Saathi

Date / /

Q III. Read and answer:-

1. How old was Sher Singh?

Ans: Sher Singh was twelve years old.

Q2. What did Sher Singh's father do for the expedition?

Ans Sher Singh's father worked as the drumbeater for the expedition

Q 3 Describe the incident when Sher Singh saw the elephants:-

Ans: Sher Singh saw the elephants below him on the river-bed. The great old tusker was playing his trunks to and fro to feel the breeze. The trunk came round towards the boys. Sher Singh chilled with fright. Suddenly the tusker hurried on agrily up the river-bed and all the herd went with him.

Q4. Why was the second river flooded?

Ans:- The second river was flooded because a big head of snow must have melted.

Scanned with CamScanner

Saathi

Date __/__/____

Q5. How did Sher Singh cross the Second river?

Ans:- Sher Singh gathered some grass and made a rope. He tied the rope round his brother and himself and entered the water just above the wreckage of the bridge. He kept the child's head above water and inch by inch moved along and crossed the river.

Q6. Complete the sequence below to find out how Sher Singh reached the hospital after crossing the Second river.

Ans:

crossed river → [road] → better road. → [village] → people → [bullock cart] → hospital truck.

Think and Answer.

Q1 Which part of India is this story from?

Ans: This story might be from the foothills of the Himalayas because one can find the flooded river because of snow melt down there.

Q2. Do you think Shersingh loved his little brother?

Ans. Yes, Sher Singh loved his little brother very much.

Page No.

Scanned with CamScanner

Q3 Why did Sher Singh tie the rope around his brother and himself?

Ans: Sher Singh tied the rope around his brother and himself so that they could remain united in the flooded river.

Q4. Give five adjectives to describe Sher Singh.

Ans. Intelligent, brave, loving, caring, laborious.

Reference to context

Read this sentence and answer the questions that follow.

"I will wring out rags boiling water and lay them on his stomach".

(a) Who said these words to whom?

Ans: Sher Singh's mother said these words to him.

(b) On whose stomach does 'I' want to lay the rags?

Ans. I wants to lay the rags on the stomach of Sher Singh's brother.

Scanned with CamScanner

Date __/__/__

(c) Why does 'I want to lay the rags on 'his' stomach?

Ans: I wants to lay the rags because Sher singh's little brother had a pain in his stomach that was getting worse.

(d) What happens next?

Ans:- As the rags did not help, Sher Singh's mother said that the boy must be carried to the hospital at kalaghat.

Scanned with CamScanner