

CHAPTER-6

Movement in Animals

Multiple choice question (pg=167)

1. The wing of bird are modified-----

Answer : Fourlimb

2. Which of the following insect do not have wings?

Answer: Bedbug

3. Which of the following Birds cannot fly?

Answer : Penguin

exercise

section A

Class Response

A Oral Question:

1. Why do animal move?

Answer: animal move to search food and shelter.

2. Name the organ of Movement in insect.

Answer: legs and wings

B Science Quiz:

1. Name the organ of Movement in mammals.

Answer: Limbs

2. Name of flying mammal?

Answer: bat

worksheet

A. Multiple choice question

1. The wings of birds are modified.

Answer: ForeLimbs

2. The animals which live both on land and in water are called.....

Answer: Amphibian

B. circle the odd ones

1. Fish frog crocodile

2. Housefly mosquito bedbug

C fill in the blanks with the help of given words

1 . Fishes have fins to swim in water.

2. Birds have light body with hollow bones.

3 .Human being move with two legs.

D. Match the column:

a.seals-flippers

b.birds- wings

c.fish- fins

d.snakes- scales

Section-B

A. multiple choice question

1 . Ducks swim in water with the help of-----

Ans: Webbed feet

2 . Cockroaches move with -----

Answer : Legs and wings

B very short answer question

1 . How do snake moves?

Answer :Snake moves with scales

2 . How do insect move ?

Answer: insects move with their legs and wings

3. What are flippers?

Answer : Flappers are the modified forelimbs

C short answer question

1. List three features of bird which help them to fly

Ans: a. Bird have wings
b. Birds have hollow bones
c .Birds can flap.

2. How do reptiles move ?

Ans: Reptiles crawl on the ground with there four strong legs.

3 .The body parts used for movement in animals are addapted to the enviroment they live in .

a. Discuss how mammals move .

Ans :Mammals moves with the help of their legs .

b .What do you learn from adapation of animals according to the enviroment ?

Ans : We learn to adjust in our life with what we have and not to complain .

D Long answer question :

1.Write a short note on movements of birds.

Ans: Birds moves with the help of their wings . wings are modified forelimbs .when birds flap its wings its body is pushed forward.

2. How is the movements of mammals different from movement of fish ?

Ans: Fishes uses fins to swim while land mammals uses legs and aquatic mammals uses flippers .