

Class: IV – English

Chapter – 5

Silver Anklets

Written: -

Q1. What was Chanda's sister's name?

Ans: The name of Chanda's sister was Munni.

Q2. Why could the toy seller not buy anklets for his daughter?

Ans: The toy seller could not buy anklets for his daughter because he was poor.

Q3. What did Chanda see as she sat beside the window?

Ans: Chanda saw a man and a girl walking towards her house.

Think and Answer

Q1. Why did Chanda's mother scold the girls?

Ans: Chanda's mother wanted her girls to be careful with strangers.

Q2. Who do you think, was honest-the toy seller or his daughter? Give reason?

Ans: The toy seller's daughter was honest because she refused to accept the stolen anklet and came with him to return it to Munni.

Q3. Why do you think, the toy seller had covered his face when he came with his daughter?

Ans: The toy seller had covered his face because he was afraid that people would recognise him. He was also ashamed that he had stolen a little girl's anklet.

Q4. Which words describe Chandini best? Give reason?

Ans: Honest – She returned the anklet which her father had stolen.

Q5. What would you have done with the anklet if you were in Chandini's place? Would you have acted honestly? Why/Why not?

Ans: Like Chandini, I would have also motivated my father to do return the anklet.

Reference to context

Read this sentence and answer the following questions.

“I want to talk to your mother”.

(a) Who said these words and to whom?

Ans: Chandini said these words to Chanda.

(b) What does the speaker say these words?

Ans: Chandini wanted to return the silver anklet her father had stolen.

(c) Why does the speaker say these words?

Ans: Chandini was able to talk to the mother.

(d) What happens next?

Ans: The toy seller asks for forgiveness, returns the anklet and gives Munni a doll as a gift.
