

Class: V – English

Chapter – 4

Stranger by the window

1. Write the correct answers.

Q1. Where did Ruby find her book?

Ans: In her bag.

Q2. How do you think, Ruby felt when she found her copy of Panchatantra?

Ans: Ashamed.

Q3. If Ruby meets the man at the railway station, what do you think she should do?

Ans: Say 'Sorry' and then return the book.

Written: -

Q1. Who was Ruby travelling with? Were they going by train or aeroplane?

Ans: Ruby was travelling with her mother. They were going by train.

Q2. Whose book had Ruby been holding till now?

Ans: Ruby had been holding the man's book till now.

Q3. How old was Ruby?

Ans: Ruby was eleven years old.

Q4. What was the man reading?

Ans: The man was reading a book.

Think and Answer

Q1. Why was Ruby angry with the man?

Ans: Ruby was angry with the man because she thought that he had taken her book.

Q2. "Your book? Which one?" Why do you think the man said this?

Ans: The man said so because he was amused to see that this young girl was telling him that the book lying near him was not his.

Q3. Why was Ruby angry when the man called her baby?

Ans: Ruby was angry with the man because she thought that an eleven year old girl should not be called a baby.

Q4. What kind of a person was the man in the story, friendly or rude? Why?

Ans: The man was friendly person, even after knowing it was his book, he let Ruby keep the book and didn't say anything to her.

Reference to context

Read this sentence and answer the question

"He has taken away my book-now he wonders if the book belongs to me at all!"

(a) Who said these words and to whom?

Ans: Ruby said these words to her mother.

(b) What was the name of the book?

Ans: The name of the book was Panchatantra.

(c) Who is 'He'?

Ans: 'He' is the man sitting by the window in the same cubicle as Ruby and her family in the train.

(d) What happens next?

Ans: Ruby's mother tries to gauge the situation by asking her where had she kept her book.