

WORD MEANINGS

Page 1:

Alleys= a narrow passage, way between or behind buildings.

Gaily= cheerful

Clad = wore / dressed

Humanity = a lot of people

Brimming = be full of something

Page 2:

Lingering on = looking at

Receding = moving away

Red- eyed = with eyes red with anger

Tyrant's way = strict and harsh manner

Melted= affected

Free spirit = happy mood

Melting gold = the colour of gold

Dragon- flies = long-bodied insects

Gaudy = bright

Intercepting = interfering with

Still it wings = stop flying

Abreast = next to or level with somebody/something

Cautionary call = called with safety in mind

Teeming out = coming out in large numbers

Shower = sprinkling

Wild capers = to skip or jump about in a playful manner

Page 3:

Throngs = large number of people

Converging = coming together

Whirlpool = centre of attraction

Half knew = thought that he knew

Hawked = tried to sell by calling out

Overwhelming = strong

Stole into = passed into

Gentle rippling = soft rushing sound

Roundabout = merry-go-round with animals and seats to ride on

Page 4:

Flushed = reddened

Convulsed = overtaken

Hither and thither = this way and that

Rage of running = running due to panic

Filmy eyes = film of tears in the eye

Flashing, murderous = full of anger

To and fro = here and there

Trampled underfoot=walked over

Stooping =bending

Steered clear =moved away

Soothe =pacify/calm down

Page 5 :

Swaying = moving sideways

Double pitched strain = two cries

Distract.. the attention =shift... the attention

Page 6 :

Reiterated = repeated

Humour= laughter