Question 3.

Is Lushkoff a willing worker? Why, then, does he agree to chop wood for Sergei?

Answer:

No, he was not a willing worker. He was too weak to work. He had lost his strength and stamina due to his habit of drinking and secondly he was a middle aged man. He agreed to chop wood because of pride and shame and he had been trapped by his own words. So he had no other way but to accept Sergei's offer.

Question 4.

Sergei says, "I am happy that my words have taken effect." Why does he say so? Is he right in saying so?

Answer:

Sergei looked satisfied with the performance of the beggar and felt happy. When Lushkoff's job of packing and hauling of the furniture was over, he praised him while handing him a rouble. But he was not right in saying so because Lushkoff had not developed the habit of working hard. He was still an idle fellow.

Question 5.

Lushkoff is earning thirty five roubles a month. How is he obliged to Sergei for this?

Answer:

Sergei played very important role in improving the condition of the beggar. It was because of Sergei that tried her best to improve the same. She did the work of his part as she wanted to change him. She kept criticizing him in order to improve him. He realised her feelings towards him and a change took place in his heart. So, Olga was responsible for the positive change in him.

Question 1.

How can we help beggars/abolish begging?

Answer:

The whole world is facing the nuisance of begging. The number of beggars is increasing day by day. Beggars can be seen at all public places. Some of the beggars have made it a business. It has become a serious problem. Our society and the government should take necessary steps to solve this problem. Global spread of education is required. Our government should pass strict laws against begging. Beggars should be given an opportunity to work. Financial support can be provided to them in order to set up some work. Beggars may be turned into skilled labourers. The government should set up beggar's home only for the handicapped. Begging is a bad practice and is an impediment in the way of progress. So, we should discourage begging and beggars.
